TOMORROW at 1PM: State Unemployment Site Down Temporarily to Improve System Performance and Access

LAS VEGAS, NV - The Nevada Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation (DETR) has announced their unemployment insurance (UI) website (<http://ui.nv.gov>) will be down on Saturday, April 18, 2020 at 1 p.m. until 7 p.m., a period of lowest traffic, in order to improve system performance and access expansion for filers. During this time, all unemployment insurance functions, including unemployment insurance filing will not be functional. Filers are encouraged to visit the site after 7 p.m. on Saturday evening.

###

The Department of Employment, Training & Rehabilitation (DETR) is the state's lead workforce development agency. It consists of divisions that offer workforce related services, job placement and training, services for people with disabilities, investigation of claims of discrimination, unemployment insurance benefits, labor market data and more. Many of these services are provided through Nevada JobConnect career centers and in cooperation with its community partners.
