TODAY'S DETR press briefing cancelled; answers to be provided in writing later today

CARSON CITY, NV — DETR'S press conference scheduled for today, Friday, July 17, 2020 at 10:00 a.m., has been cancelled. We appreciate all the questions submitted for this morning's event and will provide answers in writing later today.

DETR continues to encourage the press to submit their questions prior to future briefings. Media should submit questions by close of business on Wednesday preceding that week's briefing. As a reminder, the agency does not address specific claimant scenarios, but regularly provides updates addressing trends being experienced by filers.

We appreciate your patience and look forward to addressing your questions at our next regularly-scheduled press briefing Friday.

The Department of Employment, Training & Rehabilitation (DETR) is the state's lead workforce development agency. It consists of divisions that offer workforce related services, job placement and training, services for people with disabilities, investigation of claims of discrimination, unemployment insurance benefits, labor market data and more. Many of these services are provided through Nevada JobConnect career centers and in cooperation with its community partners.
